ABOUT DCVB: The Durham Convention & Visitors Bureau (DCVB), is an internationally accredited destination marketing organization - local tourism development authority (DMO/TDA) chartered by state and local governments to attract and serve visitors to Durham by reinvesting a portion of the visitor-paid room occupancy and tourism development tax in promotion and marketing.

DCVB's major goal is to fuel the local business climate and broaden the local tax base by attracting and serving visitors as a means of bringing money into the community, generating personal income, jobs, and tax revenue by marketing and ensuring Durham as a destination. Durham attracts 6.31 million visitors each year to the City and County, generating more than $627.7 million in spending and more than $37 million in tax revenue for local government alone.

ABOUT DDI: Downtown Durham, Inc. (DDI) is a 501(c) 6 organization, formed in 1993 to serve as a catalyst for downtown revitalization. Since then Downtown Durham, Inc., has sought to build a foundation for the future of downtown. DDI's mission is very specific—create an environment for private development in Downtown Durham by focusing efforts in five main project areas: Economic Development, Parking, Appearance, Safety, and Promotion.
